Whereas: Hurricane Fiona has caused considerable damage to Town of Cornwall property and the town will incur considerable cost in carrying out its rebuilding and cleanup responsibilities;

And Whereas: Some of the costs incurred in the rebuilding and cleanup efforts will be recouped through the town's insurance coverage, other costs were not insurable and may be recovered under the PEI Disaster Financial Assistance program for Municipalities (the Program);

And Whereas: Under the Program a category of recoverable costs is for a consultant to assist in the overall compilation, documentation and submission to the Program of costs to the town's insurer and ultimately to the Program to ensure the Town is reimbursed for its incurred costs to the maximum extent possible;

Therefore, be it Resolved: That the Town engage the services of CDA Consulting to assist with the Hurricane Fiona recovery including, the applications to the town's insurer and PEI Disaster Financial Assistance program, on an "as and when" needed basis through and until December 31, 2022.
